

SOCIAL AND PERSONALS

Red Cross workers have completed 1200 refugee garments since August 5. Mrs. Ida Fowler, who is in charge of the work, would like to see that number doubled in the next three weeks and in again assuring that all are welcome, asks that no one wait to be personally invited.

A business meeting of the women of the Christian church is to be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church, the purpose being re-organization and discussion of Round-Up work, and the meeting is an important one.

It is hoped that the remainder of the August folding may be completed when the surgical dressings class under the direction of Mrs. H. E. Rickers meets tomorrow afternoon. Meetings have been held in the workroom Monday, yesterday and today and if co-operation tomorrow is sufficient the work for the month may be entirely disposed of as planned, and volunteer attendance is urged.

Election of officers was an important item of business yesterday afternoon when the W. C. T. U. met in the Baptist church. Mrs. Glen Miller was selected as president of the organization while other officers are to be Mrs. G. W. Ruz, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Warner, recording secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. A. F. May, corresponding secretary. Good reports on the past year's work were made in all lines, especially in patriotic service where members have been active in knitting and surgical dressings work. A full delegation is to attend the county convention September 11 at Helix, members of which are to be selected at a special meeting the first of next week.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Miss Marie Mikesell became the bride of W. C. Crawford, the impressive service being read under a charming and fragrant bower of apple blossoms and ferns at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Augusta Rust, 308 West Alta street, by Rev. H. H. Hubbell of the Christian church. The bride entered with her mother, who gave her in marriage, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, and both took their places beneath a canopy of flowers and pink streamers centered by a white bell of the blossoms. They were preceded by Misses Fleta Hall and Selby Johnson who were chosen as maids to the bride, and by dainty Miss Irene Swanson who appeared in a frock of pink crepe de chine to scatter rose petals in their pathway. Charlie Dudley attended the groom as best man. The service was performed in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends and during the exchange of vows, David Swanson, cousin of the bride, who presided at the piano, played from Midsommer Night's Dream.

The bride wore a particularly becoming frock of white crepe de chine and Georgette cut on short girlish lines and embellished with embroidery and beadwork of dainty blue. The gown was worn without a veil and the color effect was made more charming by the bride's bouquet which was a great cluster of pink and white rose buds. Her mother also chose a becoming gown of white, while Miss Hall wore yellow and Miss Johnson blue, both frocks being of the crepe de chine and Georgette, and attractively blending the pastel tones were their arm bouquets of pink rosebuds.

A buffet luncheon followed the service and a unique number among the wedding festivities will be a dinner served this evening in the new home of the couple at 511 west Webb streets. Guests will be members of the wedding party and relatives, two of whom are Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hopper, uncle and aunt of the bride who arrived last night from Walla Walla.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM JOE DESPAIN.

Joe Despain, a Pendleton boy who is serving with the Canadian forces in France under date of July 29, writes to his brother Grover Despain, of this place. His letters are always interesting, and this time he mentions returning from a stay in the front trenches as if such work is all in the course of the day. The letter follows: "Somewhere in France,"

July 29, 1918.
Dear Brother:—Just a wee letter to let you know that I am still on top and kicking. Received several letters from you, also the parcel which was sure fine. We just came out of the line somewhat tired and weary after working Hiney for quite a while and I was sure a tickled boy when the mail came around. Two parcels and a bunch of letters will almost bring a dead man to life over here. We are out of the line now at least far enough out that he has to burn powder to hit us. Outside of the odd shells which comes our way with a noise like an express train, this is a quiet place. Am sorry I didn't write sooner but we have been at our old game of worrying Fritz for some time. Have written letters several times trying to locate some of the home boys over here and "no compree" why I don't get any answer. Have had several letters from Charlie and he was doing fine the last I heard from him. Please thank Mother Daniels for me. I can never thank her enough for sending me so many nice things. According to the news here the American boys have old Fritz on the bounce in their sector of the front and that sounds good to me. I just got a can of Marigold condensed milk from the Y. M. C. A. and am going to have good old Oregon milk from Newburg, Ore., for supper. The only trouble with this place is there is no "Estaminet" near and they mean mademoiselle and n'ells, means "parley you française" and it all helps to pass the time away.

Well dear brother as news is scarce and I have "brancony's" letters I write I will close for this time, with love to all from JOE.

Cuticura Healed Sister's Skin

Could Not Rest. Disfigured, Cross and Fretful. Cost of Soap and Ointment 75c.

Nothing Purer, Sweeter, For All Toilet Uses Than Cuticura Soap.

"My little sister broke out all over her body and even on her head in little white blistery-looking places. The skin was very much inflamed and red, so much so that she looked as if she had the measles. It itched so that she would rub her head from side to side on the pillow, but this caused the affected parts to become irritated. She could not rest in any position, and she was very cross and fretful. Her face was very much disfigured.

"Then we got Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Ointment were used she was healed." (Signed) Miss Myrtle Shipp, Glendevy, Colo.

Having cleared your skin with Cuticura, why not keep it clear by using the Soap for every-day toilet purposes? Sample Each Free by Mail. Address postcard: "Cuticura, Dept. K, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c.

After Constipation—What?

Constipation is not merely a local and temporary derangement—it affects the entire system as it becomes chronic.

First, it creates intestinal poisons, which foul the blood and lessen the vitality. Then come the indirect and more insidious troubles, such as Anemia, Diabetes, Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Intestinal Catarrh, Piles and Hardening of the Arteries.

Constipation is the source of numerous serious ailments. So all should beware.

The best way to pain relief, correct the trouble, and keep the entire bowel system in normal condition is to take Stanolax, the natural lubricant. It is not a cathartic, it contains no drugs. It is not habit-forming. It is tasteless. It is gentle.

Keep yourself fit this easy way. One bottle is convincing.
